

Column Charts

Alchemer Dashboard is currently waitlist only. Visit this page to learn more about Dashboard or join the waitlist!

The column chart is one of Alchemer Dashboard's simplest, yet most versatile chart types. More often than not, the column chart is your default chart type.

Column charts are vertical bar charts that display your data using rectangular bars. The length of the bar is proportional to the data value.

Your search needs at least one attribute and one measure to be represented as a column chart.

Related Articles