

Bing Access for Managing Listings

Article Content

You or Alchemer can initiate the transfer of new or updated location information for your Bing accounts.

Alchemer can claim and publish your listings to Bing Places through the Alchemer account. We can't claim listings for alternate accounts because it could cause mismatched data.

Updating Bing listings takes two to four weeks. We can escalate issues after that time.

If you have inaccurate data in Bing listings, Alchemer can request that Bing resolve the issues. Their resolution process can take two to four weeks or longer.
